

In conjunction with the percussion section of the Kidsgrove Scouts:

PERCUSSION CLINIC

Special Guest
Jeff Moore
Professor of Percussion

Date: 12th February 2006. Location: Chesterton High School, Stoke on Trent, Staffordshire. Time: 1 pm - 5 pm

This is a unique opportunity for percussionists to witness first hand an accomplished musician demonstrating his craft here in the UK. Professor Moore will first present and discuss approaches to a range of marching and orchestral percussion instruments. He will then work with the 2005 DCUK championship percussion section, the Kidsgrove Scouts, in order to demonstrate some of the fundamental playing principals exemplified by the various marching ensembles he has worked with during his career. A must-see for all percussionists, whether playing or teaching: book your tickets now!

Jeffrey Moore received his Bachelor's of Music Education Degree from the University of North Texas and his Master's Degree in Percussion Performance from the University of Wisconsin - Madison. Active in all facets of percussion, he has performed with several major symphony orchestras and is a frequent performer of chamber music. He also performs on drum set, and is an international clinician, lecturer, and soloist.

Professor Moore's duties at UCF include conducting the large "Pop" Percussion Ensemble, the Chamber Percussion Ensemble, and the Marimba Band. Additionally, he supervises the instruction and music arranging for the Marching Knights drumline and assists in the instruction of the UCF Steel Band that he established in 1994. Professor Moore teaches all applied percussion majors and minors, as well as a percussion techniques class for music education majors.

Professor Moore has served as the Percussion Director of the internationally acclaimed Madison Scouts Drum and Bugle Corps, and as Program Consultant/Percussion Arranger with several European, Japanese, and Indonesian drum corps and bands. He was the battery arranger for the 1999 DCA World Champion Syracuse Brigadiers.

Professor Moore is an associate editor of Percussive Notes, and serves on the Education Advisory Committee for Latin Percussion International and Pro-Mark Incorporated. He is the Education Director of the Paiste Corporation based in Lucerne, Switzerland, and is also a member of the College Pedagogy Committee and Marching Percussion Committee within the Percussive Arts Society International.

Professor Moore is a Yamaha Performing Artist/Clinician, and endorses Paiste cymbal, sounds, and gongs. He endorses Pro-Mark sticks and mallets, and has three signature model sticks and seven keyboard mallet models. Professor Moore also endorses Remo Drum Heads, Latin Percussion, and Real Feel Drum Pads.
